

21 July 2022

Dear Valued ONE customer,

PS3: Delay of Vessel ONE COMPETENCE V.081W

We regret to inform you that some crew members on MV ONE COMPETENCE V.081W were tested positive for Covid-19 prior to berthing at Pusan.

We have taken the necessary measures to enable her to proceed with cargo operations at Pusan on 21st July 2022. We are working on ensuring that the vessel meets the required Covid regulations to be able to continue her Westbound voyage.

With this development, the vessel's berthing date at Shanghai is estimated to be on or around 5th August 2022, subjected to further changes.

Please be assured that we are closely monitoring the situation and utmost efforts are in place to safeguard the health and well-being of all seafarers onboard during the pandemic.

We regret the inconvenience caused by this incident and thank you for your kind understanding in this regard. If you have any questions, please contact your ONE sales representative.

Sincerely,

Ocean Network Express Pte. Ltd.
